

GOOD FRIDAY GOSPEL

John 18:1-19:42 (JB) EDITED SHORTER VERSION

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Narr. Jesus left with his disciples and crossed the Kedron valley. There was a garden there, and he went into it with his disciples. Judas the traitor knew the place well, since Jesus had often met his disciples there, and he brought the cohort to this place together with a detachment of guards sent by the chief priests and the Pharisees, all with lanterns and torches and weapons. Knowing everything that was going to happen to him, Jesus then came forward and said,

Jesus Who are you looking for?

CROWD Jesus the Nazarene.

Jesus I am he.

Narr. Now Judas the traitor was standing among them. When Jesus said, 'I am he', they moved back and fell to the ground. The cohort and its captain and the Jewish guards seized Jesus and bound him.

Simon Peter, with another disciple, followed Jesus. The maid on duty at the door of the high priest's palace said to Peter,

Other Aren't you another of that man's disciples?

Peter I am not.

Narr. The high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. Jesus answered,

Jesus I have spoken openly for all the world to hear; I have always taught in the synagogue and in the Temple where all the Jews meet together: I have said nothing in secret.

Narr. Then Annas sent him, still bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. As Simon Peter stood there warming himself, someone said to him,

Other Aren't you another of his disciples?

Peter I am not.

Narr. One of the high priest's servants, a relation of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said,

Other Didn't I see you in the garden with him?

Narr. Again Peter denied it; and at once a cock crew.

They then led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the Praetorium. It was now morning. They did not go into the Praetorium themselves or they would be defiled and unable to eat the Passover. So Pilate came outside to them and said,

Pilate What charge do you bring against this man?

CROWD If he were not a criminal, we should not be handing him over to you.

Pilate Take him yourselves, and try him by your own Law.

Narr. The Jews answered,

CROWD We are not allowed to put a man to death.

Narr. This was to fulfil the words Jesus had spoken indicating the way he was going to die. So Pilate went back into the Praetorium and called Jesus to him, and asked,

Pilate Are you the king of the Jews?

Jesus Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?

Pilate Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?

Jesus Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent me being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.

Pilate So you are a king then?

Jesus It is you who say it. Yes, I am a King. I was born for this, I came into the world for this; to bear witness to my truth, and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.

Pilate Truth? What is that?

Narr. And with that he went out again to the Jews and said,

Pilate I find no case against him. But according to a custom of yours I should release one prisoner at the Passover; would you like me, then, to release the king of the Jews?

Narr. At this they shouted:

CROWD Not this man, but Barabbas.

Narr. Barabbas was a brigand.

Pilate then had Jesus taken away and scourged; and after this, the soldiers twisted some thorns into a crown and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple robe They kept coming up to him and saying,

CROWD Hail, king of the Jews!

Narr. and they slapped him in the face. Pilate came outside again and said to them,

Pilate Look, I am going to bring him out to you to let you see that I find no case.

Narr. Jesus then came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said,

Pilate Behold the man.

Narr. When they saw him the chief priests and guards shouted,

CROWD Crucify him! Crucify him!

Pilate Take him yourselves and crucify him: I can find no case against him.

Narr. The Jews replied,

CROWD We have a Law, and according to the Law he ought to die, because he has claimed to be the Son of God.

Narr. When Pilate heard them say this his fears increased. Re-entering the Praetorium, he said to Jesus,

Pilate Where do you come from?

Narr. But Jesus made no answer. Pilate then said to him,

Pilate Are you refusing to speak to me? Surely you know I have power to release you and I have power to crucify you?

Jesus You would have no power over me if it had not been given you from above; that is why the one who handed me over to you has the greater guilt.

Narr. From that moment Pilate was anxious to set him free, but the Jews shouted.

CROWD If you set him free you are no friend of Caesar's; anyone who makes himself King is defying Caesar.

Narr. Hearing these words, Pilate had Jesus brought out, and seated himself on the chair of judgement at a place called the Pavement, in Hebrew Gabbatha. It was Passover Preparation Day, about the sixth hour Pilate said to the Jews,

Pilate Here is your king.

CROWD Take him away, take him away. Crucify him!

Pilate Do you want me to crucify your king?

Narr. The chief priests answered,

CROWD We have no king except Caesar.

Narr. So in the end Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified.

They then took charge of Jesus, and carrying his own cross he went out of the city to the place of the skull, or, as it was called in Hebrew, Golgotha, where they crucified him with two others, one on either side with Jesus in the middle.

Pilate wrote out a notice and had it fixed to the cross: it ran: 'Jesus the Nazarene, King of the Jews.' This notice was read by many of the Jews, because the place where Jesus was crucified was not far from the city, and the writing was in Hebrew, Latin and Greek. So the Jewish chief priests said to Pilate,

CROWD You should not write 'King of the Jews', but 'This man said: I am King of the Jews'.

Pilate What I have written, I have written.

Narr. When the soldiers had finished crucifying Jesus they took his clothing and divided it into four shares, one for each soldier.

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala.

Seeing his mother and the disciple he loved standing near her, Jesus said to his mother,

Jesus Woman, this is your son.

Narr. Then to the disciple, he said,

Jesus This is your mother.

Narr. And from that moment the disciple made a place for her in his home.

After this, Jesus knew that everything had now been completed, and to fulfil the scripture perfectly he said:

Jesus I am thirsty.

Narr. A jar full of vinegar stood there, so putting a sponge soaked in vinegar on a hyssop stick they held it up to his mouth. After Jesus had taken the vinegar he said,

Jesus It is finished.

Narr. And bowing his head he gave up the spirit.

(Pause & kneel)

It was Preparation Day, and to prevent the bodies remaining on the cross during the sabbath—since that sabbath was a day of special solemnity—the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken away. Consequently the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with him and then of the other.

When they came to Jesus, they found that he was already dead, and so instead of breaking his legs one of the soldiers pierced his side with a lance; and immediately there came out blood and water. This is the evidence of one who saw it—trustworthy evidence, and he knows he speaks the truth—and he gives it so that you may believe as well.

After this, Joseph of Arimathaea, who was a disciple of Jesus—though a secret one because he was afraid of the Jews—asked Pilate to let him remove the body of Jesus. Pilate gave permission, so they came and took it away.

Nicodemus came as well—the same one who had first come to Jesus at night time and he brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds.

They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, following the Jewish burial custom. At the place where he had been crucified there was a garden, and in this garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been buried.

Since it was the Jewish Day of Preparation and the tomb was near at hand, they laid Jesus there.
