

an apostle of King Jesus

The first letter of Paul to the church in Corinth

An aerial photograph of a winding asphalt road through a rugged, mountainous landscape. The terrain is covered in green moss and lichen, with rocky outcrops. The road curves through the valley, and a few cars are visible on it. A semi-transparent beige box with a fine grid pattern is overlaid on the lower half of the image, containing white text.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

Grace

charis

“The absolutely free expression of the love of God finding its only motive in the abundance of God.”

Grace

A scenic landscape featuring a sun rising over a mountain range, with a dense forest of pine trees in the foreground. The sun is positioned centrally behind a mountain peak, creating a bright glow and casting long shadows. The sky is a clear, pale blue, and the overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

Peace

Peace

is creative
and always now

Grace

and

Peace

“There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.”

Romans 8:1
